ANNUAL CATHOLIC CHURCH FAIR TO BE HELD WEEK-END, JULY 6-7TH.

Annual Church Benefit for Our Lady of the Gulf Church Dates Back to 1847—Father Buteaux Then Pastor—Continued For Week.

Annual church benefit Our Lady of the Gulf church is announced this year for Saturday and Sunday, July 6th and 7th. This fair will be given on the premises of the yard fronting the church, this space measuring 100 x 100 and being level and with a new road cut through the back entrance will lend itself well for the purpose.

The annual church fair or bazaar dates back according to the Rev. Leo F. Fahey, local church historian, to the time of the Rev. Father Buteaux, who arrived here from France in 1847. His first fair or benefit was in 1847 and has been given ever since, and flourished in the time of Father LeDuc's time, when it was very simple matter to realize sums over three hundred dollars. Father Buteaux's first fair continued for a full week and afforded the people much diversion and no doubt netted the church exchequer ample funds.

WAVELAND GROUP TO GIVE MUSICAL RECITAL AT CHRIST CHURCH

This Friday, 8 P. M. Under Auspices of Christ Church Guild—Public Invited.

Over in Waveland, in a little cottage in a shady spot back a block or two from the beach sits a Steinway Grand piano and with it a musician who nurses it in every mood, tunes it with precision and plays it with the rapt enjoyment of a master.

Here too gather an ardent group of singers, three nights, four nights, maybe every night each week—month after month, working and building a repertoire of solos, duets and trios—religious songs, folk songs, operatic arias. Laville Bremer, Mrs. Dorothy Forshee and the Kenneth Thompsons, members of this group are looking for more talent—someone with tenor possibilities—someone who can sing bass.

Friday June 21st at 8 p. m. this group will give an organ and vocal recital at Christ Church, Bay St. Louis, the program as follows: Organ, Largo Handel Pastoral Scarlatti Vocal—My Faith Looks Up To Thee Geo. B. Nevin So Thou Lifest Thy Divine Petition Stainer. Duet by Mrs. Dorothy Forshee and Mr. K. B. Thompson.

The members of the group hope that others will catch their enthusiasm, recognize the skillful training that Mr. Bremer has given to these voices and feel the urge to come and work themselves. Mrs. Dorothy Forshee studied for some seven years under the top teachers of New York. Kenneth Thompson has had some training too under New York and English teachers in England, while Mrs. Thompson started from scratch with Mr. Bremer about a year ago. All members of the group however feel that to Mr. Bremer the honors are due for vast improvement and coordination.

It is activities of this character that make life on the coast so well worth while, others who would like to participate will be welcome. Mr. Bremer plays the organ at Christ Church, Bay St. Louis and is organist and choir master at Trinity Church, Pass Christian.

Capt. Peairs was elected ticket commissioner. Managers of election will be named at a later date. They, in turn, will name the clerks and peace and returning officers.

All entries for candidates now filed, the field for the race is now closed.

On last Friday evening a meeting of the local chapter of the American Red Cross was held for the purpose of perfecting plans for the immediate opening of the Production Room, and at which Mrs. Mollie Hodges, Field Representative of the American Red Cross, presided.

Mrs. Hodges outlined the number of garments which comprise the quota for Hancock Chapter and specifications for their making. She told of the wonderful displays she had viewed in other counties, stating that garments for children and women had been made from up-to-date patterns and trimmed attractively, in materials of gay and bright patterns. It is desired to endeavor to uphold the morale and spirit of the people in stricken countries by providing them with something more than just clothes to cover and protect them. Mrs. G. Y. Blaise is chairman of the Production Committee, and with an able committee, began cutting garments on Monday afternoon so that persons desiring to sew or assist in any way may get in touch with Mrs. Blaise or Mrs. George R. Rea.

Mrs. Hodges also stated that surgical bandages will have to be made according to specifications and for this purpose the Red Cross is conducting a school in this line of work in New Orleans, for a few days and Mrs. Laurent Dickson and Mrs. George R. Rea volunteered to attend and learn the method in order to be able to teach local volunteer workers when this phase of the work begins.

Purchasing of materials for making into garments is in charge of Miss Levia Engman and Miss Elsa Mauffray.

Volunteers are urgently requested to come forth and offer their services as the refugees increase and the plea for assistance becomes greater each day and no time can be spared. Everyone who sympathizes with the sufferers in Europe can put this sympathy in concrete form by giving of their time and service, and those who do so at a sacrifice, thus make their gift to humanity doubly worthy.

Mrs. Hodges stated that Mississippi was second in states meeting their prescribed quotas and furnishing supplies, so let us all get busy and not let Hancock county be lagging in her part of our great state's work.

LOCAL RESIDENT FOUND DEAD ON R. R. PREMISES EARLY THURSDAY A. M.

Arthur Fayard, 58, Died of Internal Hemorrhage, Declares Coroner's Inquest—Had No Immediate Family—To Be Buried This Friday P. M.

Arthur (Poylan) Fayard, native of Bay St. Louis, aged 58 years, was found dead at an early hour Thursday morning, on the local railroad property east of the coal chutes.

The matter was immediately reported to the authorities. Coroner George Heitzmann assembled a jury and the inquest revealed that the man had been dead for many hours, presumably dying the night previously. His face was covered with blood that had flowed from internal disruption.

The jury, composed of Louis Taconi, Richard J. Johnson, L. C. Carver, Loyd Ladner, D. H. Roberts, and Albert Heitzmann, Jr., declared: "We, the jury, found that Arthur Fayard, died from natural causes. The body was taken in charge by relatives and turned over to Fayard Undertaking firm. Funeral will be held this Friday afternoon, from the Fayard Funeral Home. A member of the Catholic faith he will be buried with ceremonies of that church."

At one time he was connected with the local freight department of the L. & N. R. Co., but of late years was unemployed. The railroad company valued his services highly. Later he worked for the city from time to time.

He was a son of Alce and Jeanne Fayard. Brother of Mrs. Maurice Johnston, uncle of Mrs. Annie Oliver and Mrs. Zudie Planos, of Bay St. Louis.

Defense program is overwhelmingly backed, Gallup poll finds.

Roosevelt and Hoover lead in survey on foreign ability.

SENATOR HARRISON'S RADIO ADDRESS.

PRaising the "magnificent response" of the American people in the present world crisis, Senator Harrison of Mississippi, chairman of the Senate finance committee, told the country in a radio address that "the steps taken by Congress in appropriating billions for the national defense and in passing a tax bill to finance emergency expenditures in a convincing demonstration that action in a democracy can be as speedy and as impressive as that in a dictatorship."

Senator Harrison, speaking on "Providing money for the National Defense," analyzed the billion-dollar tax bill which has passed the House and is now before the Senate. The Senate Finance Committee reported the bill out unanimously Saturday.

It is re-assuring to note the teamwork of Mississippi's senior senator with the President. Senator Harrison has labored in and out of season for the policies of the administration agreeing with his views.

Senator Harrison well expresses the opinion that "this nation—calm and determined and courageous—is prepared to go to the limit." Of this he said in his address that he was convinced.

ELECTRICITY REACHING THE FARM.

MORE than six hundred rural electric systems have been financed by the Federal Rural Electrification Administration since 1935 and, as a result, one farm family in four now enjoys new opportunities and incentives for life and work on the farm.

When the REA undertook to carry high line electric power to the farmers of the United States, only one in ten had central station service. The advantages and conveniences which come to farmers as a result of electricity are too well known to need restatement here. The progress which has been made is worth nothing, but we should not overlook the fact, even now, three out of four farm families do not have the opportunity to enjoy electricity.

FOOD FOR THE WAR REFUGEES.

THE people of the United States, as Secretary Wallace says, "have been shocked by the untold misery and suffering of Europe's war refugees, the great majority of whom are women and children."

For this reason they will approve the plan that has been worked out by the Department of Agriculture by which the American Red Cross will buy food supplies at about one-half of the market cost.

As we understand it, the payments to the Red Cross will come from government funds already appropriated to increase the distribution of surplus farm commodities. The payments will constitute an export subsidy.

PERSHING'S ADVICE.

GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING, leader of American armies in France in 1917-18, declares that "the Allies are fighting a war for civilization."

"They are holding our front line," adds the commander-in-chief of the largest army ever mustered by this republic, "and we have a vital concern in the outcome. We should send not only food, clothing and medical supplies but also arrange to send airplanes, artillery, small arms and ammunition in unlimited quantities. There is no time to lose."

The democracy that we have taken for granted may require us to do something in its behalf.

With war and political campaign underway the truth is going to take an awful beating this summer.

Despite all that has happened, the French army maintains its reputation as a fighting machine.

Maybe this war will teach the democratic nations of the world to cooperate in times of peace in order to prevent times of war.

There can be no certain answer to many of life's puzzles; just get all the information you can acquire and then follow your best judgment.

The presidential campaign will begin officially when the candidates are nominated and the people of this country will enjoy the privilege of freedom in selecting their chief executive.

Meanwhile, don't forget that a hundred Americans are being killed every day or our highways and that no man can serve his nation by getting hurt in an automobile collision.

50 U. S. warplanes have been made available to the Allies by the simple expedient of trading them in to the Curtis factory on new models. The planes will be turned over to the factory at once and may be sold by them now. Several of the later dive bombers are in the lot, it is understood. The planes ordered for the U. S. Navy of a superior type, equipped with leak-proof tanks and armor.

CARL MARSHALL SPEAKS OF THE FLAG.

ATTORNEY Carl Marshall of Bay St. Louis was speaker of the day at Biloxi Flag Day, program presented under auspices Biloxi Lodge of Elks. The address was marked for its inspirational patriotism and timely in view of the present world situation.

Mr. Marshall unfurled the "glorious history" and the growth of the United States, tracing that interval of time from the birth of the country to the present day development and the "building of an empire which is the envy and model of the rest of the World with 67 per cent of its wealth."

He spoke concerning its principles of freedom. "Our forefathers had almost inspired wisdom. The most inspiring thing about the flag is that it symbolizes the greatness of the men who founded this country," he told the audience.

What Americans have done for the world was stressed, and he said that "the world would be a dark and gloomy place but for American genius," pointing out that 60 per cent of the patents issued were to Americans. The electric light, steamboat, airplanes and other steps in the progress of the world were mentioned.

"All know and feel with exalted and humble pride that our flag casts a ray of hope to humanity everywhere," Mr. Marshall declared.

"We cannot enjoy the blessing of our country without knowing its obligations," he said as he discussed timely current matters. He recalled what Poland and France did for America as a pioneer country, and, he emphasized, "We can't forget those obligations. Today the American flag is the last hope of the world to attain those things that make life worthwhile. America will not be found wanting at this time and the American flag will be just as stainless in the future as in the past."

Sacrifices made for this country in days gone by will not be forgotten, Mr. Marshall said in closing his message of patriotism.

BACK TO EARTH.

THE United States seems to be turning away from all kinds of "isms" and back to the fundamental theory of government, namely, a free people and individual opportunity—a government to protect, not to compete with its own citizens in business.

To quote the President, "Private industry will have the responsibility of providing the best, speediest and most efficient mass production of which it is capable."

There can be no question of the desire of American industry to cooperate to the limit of its ability with our government to attain unprecedented heights of efficiency and service to the end that America may swiftly be provided with the best defense system in the world. And there should be no question of the willingness of our public servants, from the Executive down, to cooperate with private enterprise in order to guarantee the successful completion of that gigantic task.

It has taken a world calamity to reawaken our people to the vital role which private enterprise plays in our national life.

The men, the machines, the resources, and the technique which private enterprise has developed, are our first line of defense. The great industries of America made possible the highest peacetime standards of living for all—and out of these industries, staffed with free men working under a free enterprise system, must come our weapons of defense.

The time when we could afford socialistic experiments to the destruction of private enterprise—if we ever could afford them—has passed. The national defense is the first and foremost duty of the Federal government in its determination to perpetuate the American way of life.

We must get back to the fundamentals of democracy if we are to survive as a free and secure people where government is the servant, not the master of its citizens.

UNUSUAL SITUATION IN HARRISON COUNTY.

AN unusual situation prevails over in Harrison county. A supervisor has been elected to office three times, consecutively, and he had failed to qualify each time. In spite of this the voters continue to elect him. It is a unique case. The man elected cannot make bond.

The Columbus Dispatch, telling the story of the case, as follows, says "the voters who so persistently vote for him ought to pitch in and make his bond for him. They ought to do that or quit voting for him."

Edward Fairley was elected in the primaries last summer.

He failed to make bond, and the Board declared his office vacant.

A special election was called and Fairley offered for re-election.

He was elected again and again he failed to make bond.

Another special election was called.

Fairley showed up as a candidate again, and was overwhelmingly elected.

Now, for the third time he has failed to make bond, and the board is about to declare the office vacant.

CATTLE GROWING IN HANCOCK.

LIVE STOCK industry in Hancock should do well and flourish in the fullest extent—in successful undertaking and in the ultimate cash result.

An auction of local live stock held at Picaune this week showed the trend of price of live stock. There was a brisk demand and consequently top notch prices prevailed.

There is no industry more inviting in the county just now than that of live stock and surprising fact is that comparatively so few have gone into the enterprise.

However, we hope to see the county build up a potential industry in this line. It is nothing impossible and not difficult; will yield handsome results and build up such success as to insure permanency for the future of the county. Its people are in need of something of the kind, particularly since timber is practically gone and something must take its place.

The future belongs to the man who puts the "I can" in American.

Hollywood Notes.

PUTTING a stop to their play, "Romeo and Juliet," Lawrence Oliver and Vivien Leigh plan to sail almost immediately for their homeland, England, for war service.

The last role which Wilfrid Lawson, who will be vividly remembered for his portrayal of a backwoodsman in "Allegheny Uprising," appeared in before leaving for England to join the Royal Air Force was in "The Long Voyage Home."

When "The Amazing Story of Sergeant York" is filmed, the dialogue for the most part, will be that of mountaineers of Tennessee, which, according to studio officials, bears little resemblance to that of the rest of the South, but retains archaic English expressions of the sixteenth century. It has been established that the mountaineers of North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky are to be found anywhere in this country.

Barbara Stanwyck is said to be Hollywood's heaviest coffee drinker—consuming twenty-four cups a day.

John Carroll is the tallest leading man in pictures, being six feet, three inches in height. James Stewart runs him a close race though, being only one-half an inch shorter.

Studios, during the past two years, have reached onto Broadway and bought seventeen attractions for adaptation to the screen. The highest price paid for any of them was $250,000 which Warners is reputed to have paid for film rights to "The Man Who Came to Dinner" and MGM a like sum for "The Philadelphia Story."

Apparently to boost the patriotic spirit in the country, Warners is planning 2 new short subjects. The first will be "Young America Flies," featuring Jean Parker and Donald Woods, and the second will be "Service With the Colors." The studio also has scheduled a short based on the story of Clara Barton and the Red Cross, "Flag of Humanity," for two-reel treatment.

Priscilla Lane has ended her disagreement with her studio which announces that she will have the lead in "Honey Moon for Three," in which George Brent and Olivia de Havilland, who also has been on the outs with Warner Brothers, will be co-starred.

Errol Flynn had to be rescued by police from women who broke through police lines and practically mobbed him, tearing buttons from his clothes as souvenirs. This happened in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

C. Aubrey Smith will continue his role as Gloria Jean's grandfather in "A Little Bit of Heaven." He appeared in the same characterization in Gloria's first movie appearance, "The Underpump."

U. S. increase lead in auto ownership first time since 1916.

To this good old land, America,
To the land envied near and far.

To the only land on which the sun
can look,
And smile upon, without fear,
To the only land which the foreign lands,
Can look upon and cheer.

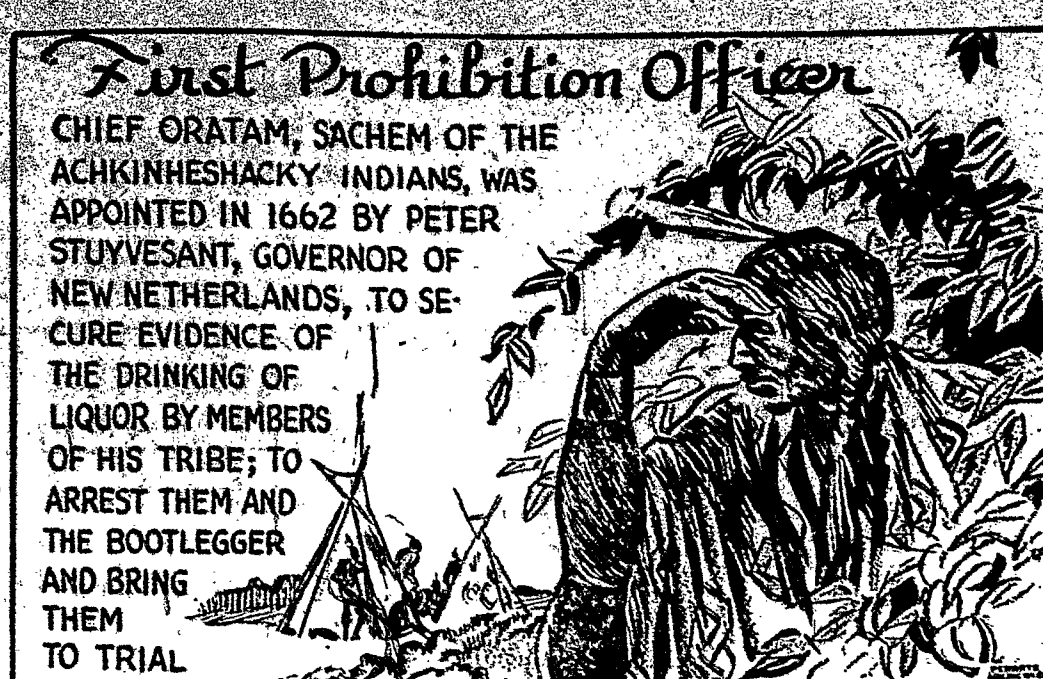

Hail to thy warless border,
To thy patriotic bliss,
Hail to the "Star Spangled Banner,"
And to Lady Liberty, a kiss.

May we salute the only flag,
That is not torn by war,
And let's all cheer the U. S. men,
Who are not fighting as men afar.

Yes, let's not shed good U. S. blood
On any foreign soil,
And may our soldiers never see
Such warlike, un-wanted toil.

COLMER'S ALL RIGHT.

(From Laurel Leader-Call—June 6, 1940.)

So far as we know, our representative, Bill Colmer, has no announced opposition to re-election, nor should he have. Mr. Colmer has done a conscientious piece of work in Washington, and is growing more and more useful, all the time. A new face in the nation's capital is learned only after several years, for that is a city of important personages, and a man must live there and work there for a long time and do big things to earn any recognition at all.

But this recognition, hard earned, is coming Bill Colmer's way in Washington, where his influence is growing steadily, and he is known for his solid character, his dependability, his sound judgment.

So far as Colmer's service to his contingent is concerned, we know of no instance where he has failed to give instant attention to calls from his section. A message to Colmer gets a prompt and courteous response, and a visit to his office, in behalf of some local projects, secures a generous audience and an understanding hearing.

When a representative links courteous and conscientious response with growing influence, he offers his people about as good service as is obtainable in the nation's capital. Colmer renders both, and therefore merits no opposition, in our opinion.

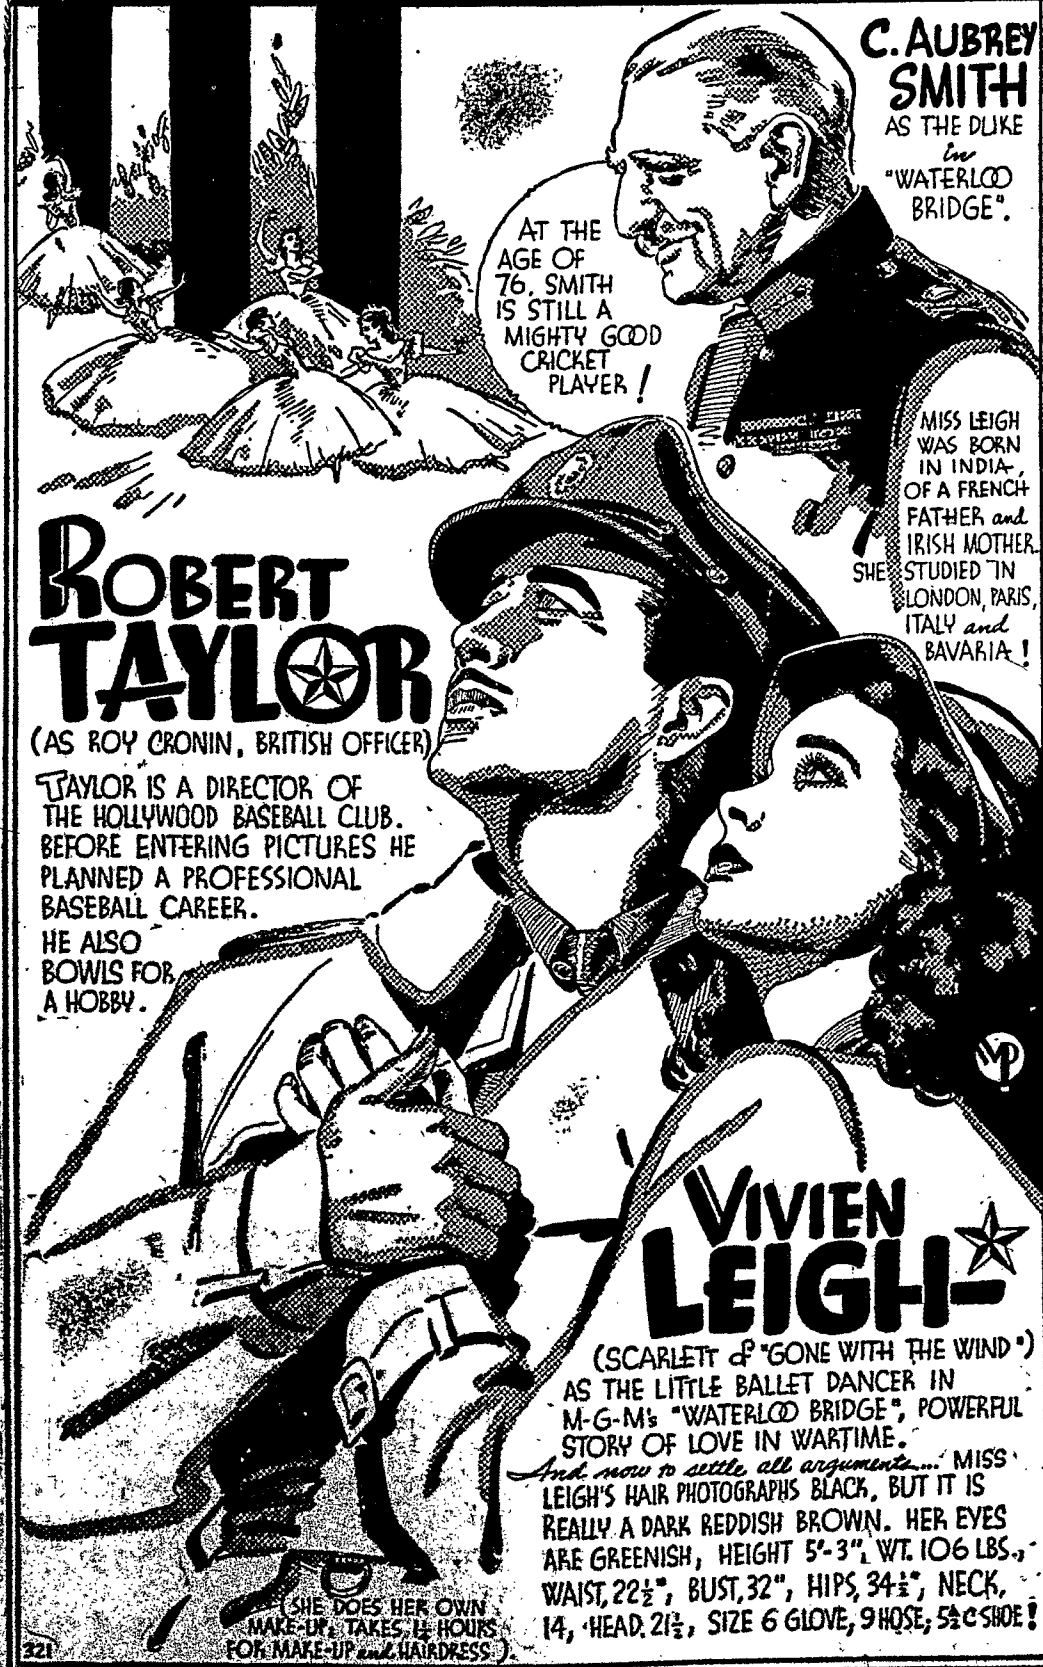

Finally, and in addition to all this—1940 is a most crucial time in the country's history. We haven't time to try out a tyro, an inexperienced individual, no matter how willing he may be. Character and influence are what we need at Washington, in this critical summer. Colmer has both.

IT'S TRUE! By Wiley Padan

NEW YORK, N. Y.—"IT'S TRUE!" that three years ago Robert Taylor "went to England to make 'A Vank at Oxford,'" says Wiley Padan. "He came back raving about a promising young actress in the picture, predicting that she was certain to become a great star. The young actress was Vivien Leigh! Winning the Academy Award for her performance in the role of Scarlett O'Hara, seems to justify his prediction. Her new role with Taylor in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's 'Waterloo Bridge' is as different a type as day from night, and gives her fans another chance to discover hidden facets of her fascinating personality."

DON'T MAKE THE SAME MISTAKE TWICE. THIS TIME USE CONCRETE

Every street—business or residential—that has developed bumps, ruts or chuckholes, cries for repaving with concrete.

Don't let the old mistakes be made again. Concrete is smooth, safe and clean—and stays that way through decades of hard service.

Concrete actually costs less than any other pavement of equal load-bearing capacity—and costs far less for upkeep. It saves motorists money by reducing car operating expense. Its non-skid surface is safe to drive on night or day, wet or dry. Its cleanliness and attractive appearance improve property values.

Urge your public officials to use concrete when they pave your streets.

Hitler says war is better than peace. Let us know that war is hell and resort to it only to enforce and preserve peace.

Hitler despises all nations and races but his own. Let us know that "God" hath made of one blood all nations of men.

Hitler wants to conquer our souls—to drag us down to his perdition level. Let's not wallow in the mire with him.

Let us not look to our own noble patterns—Washington and Jefferson, Lincoln and Lee. Let us think of nothing and do nothing that they would not do.

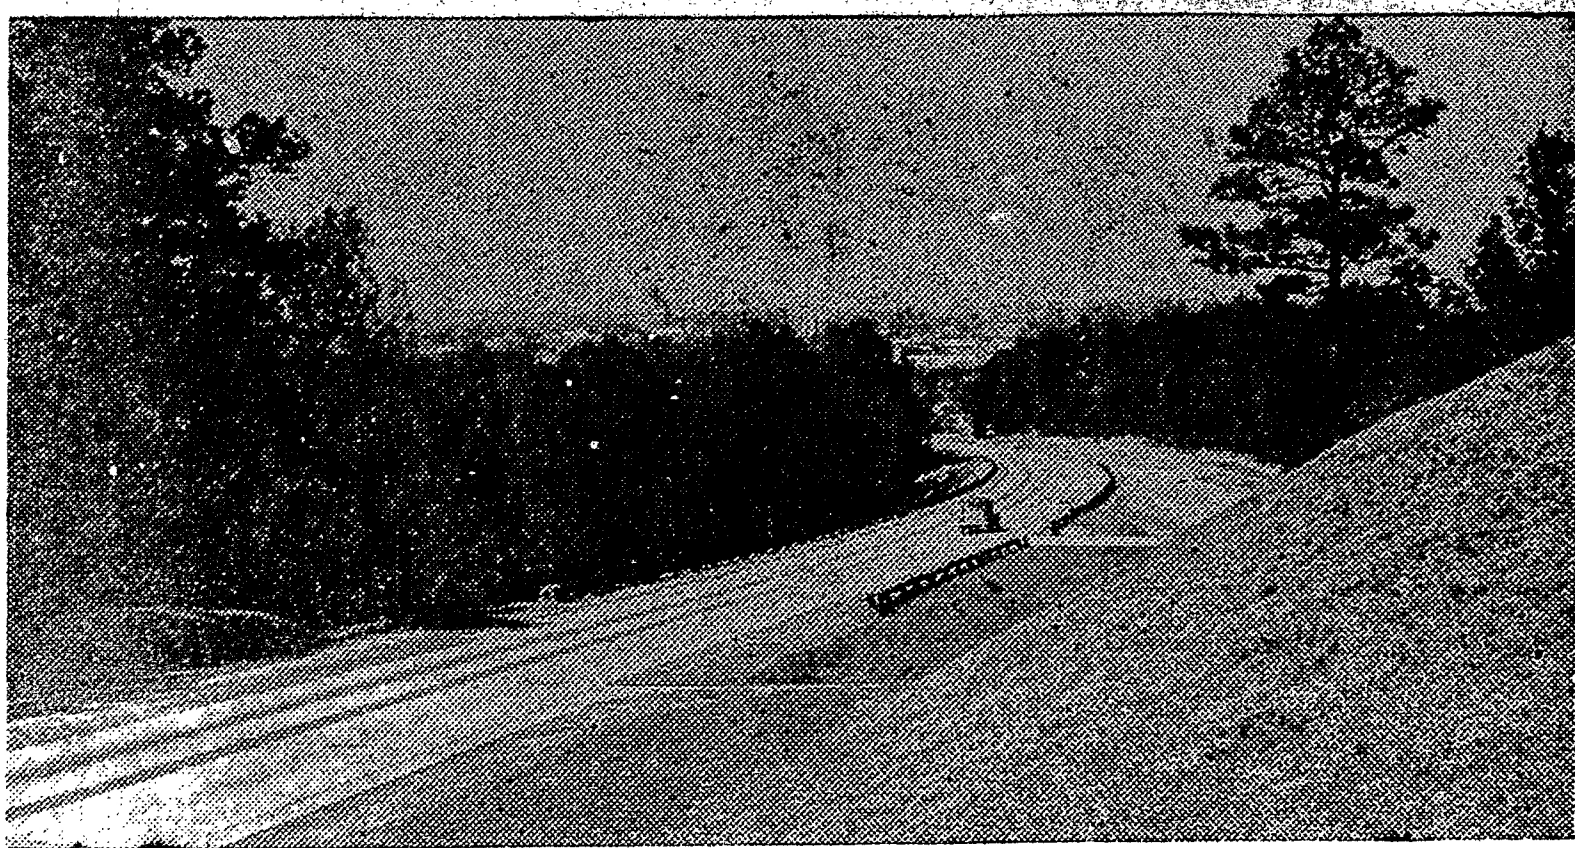

We must arm against the possibility that Hitler may cross the Atlantic. But Hitlerism can enter only through our own hearts, by our own consent.

Let's keep Hitlerism over there—3,000 miles away.

Vegetable Laxative
Has Important Points

This laxative does three important things for most users. If simple directions are followed, it usually acts punctually, thoroughly, gently. You will like spiky BLACK-DRAUGHT's way. Chief of its all-acceptable ingredients is an "intestinal tonic-laxative" which helps tone lazy bowel muscles. Next time, take BLACK-DRAUGHT. Economical, too: 25 to 40 doses, 25c.

Art of Conserving Food
Values—What to Keep
And What to Throw Away.

Are you needlessly throwing away the most valuable parts of your food? Today the art of cooking is more than the production of a tasty dish attractively served; it also included the conserving of food values. Some losses of vitamins are unavoidable in cooking. But why needlessly throw away three-fourths of these valuable protective foods every day?

- Below are some "Do's and Don'ts" in preserving vitamins in our foods.
1. Don't stir air into foods while cooking.
2. Don't put them through a sieve while still hot.
3. Don't use soda in cooking green vegetables.
4. In boiling foods do raise them to the boiling point as rapidly as possible.
5. Use as little water as possible.
6. Don't soak in water a longtime when washing.
7. Don't use long cooking processes such as stewing when shorter methods are feasible.
8. Don't throw away the water in which vegetables have been cooked, use it in making gravies, sauces, and soups.
9. Don't fry foods valuable for their content or vitamins A, B, C.
10. Prepare chopped fruit and vegetable salads just before serving.
11. Do start cooking frozen foods while they are still frozen.
12. Do serve raw frozen foods immediately after serving.
13. Do when canning tomatoes and fruit juices leave as small air space at the top as possible.

"Road To Singapore" At A.
& G. Theater Sunday-
Monday.

A sparkling potpourri of popular new melodies springs forth from the lively larynxes of Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour and Bob Hope in Paramount's fun-filled safari into the South Seas, "Road to Singapore," which opens Sunday at the A. & G. Theater.

Once again Paramount has called upon that ace writing team, Johnny Burke and James V. Monaco, to write a goodly portion of the tunes. Their work for this picture includes "Too Romantic," a sock torchy number which has already been aired many times, "Sweet Potato Piper," a swiny novelty tune and "Kalgoon," the number to which LeRoy Prinz's dancing girls perform.

The other two numbers heard in the picture are the work of lyricist Johnny Burke and Victor Schertzinger, versatile director of the picture. They are "Captain Custard," and "The Moon and the Willow Tree."

"Road to Singapore" finds Bing and Bob singing their merry way to the South Seas to get away from the girls. However, they run smack into Dorothy Lamour and fall in love with her, naturally.

CONGRESSMAN COLMER
TELLS OF NEW AIR
PROGRAM FOR OUR U. S.

Enlisting for Aeronautic Program—Qualifications Necessary—Payment, Etc.—Camp Shelby in South Mississippi to Be Permanent Regular Army Post—Other Interesting Items.

By WILLIAM M. COLMER, M. C.

A constant stream of letters from the district indicates that a large number of our young men are interested in the new air expansion program. They may enter any one of three types of aviation training: as flying cadets, as air corps soldiers, or as aviation students in one of the colleges or universities participating in the Civil Aeronautics program.

For unmarried young men between the ages of twenty and twenty-six inclusive, who have completed two years of college training or are able to pass an examination in lieu thereof, enlistment as a flying cadet furnishes the best opportunity. The pay of a flying cadet is $75 per month; in addition there is a ration allowance of $1 per day. Requests for application forms should be made to the Commanding General, Fourth Corps Area, Atlanta, Georgia.

If one has a high school education or its equivalent and is more interested in the mechanical side of aviation, he may enlist as an air corps soldier. The men are trained in such trades as mechanics, machinists, welders, metal workers, parachute riggers, instrument and electrical specialists. The pay ranges from $21 per month, plus room and board, for beginners to $157.50 per month depending upon the grade held and the length of service. For participating in aerial flights they receive 50 per cent additional. Men between the ages of 18 and 35 years, and unmarried, desiring to enlist in the Air Corps for a three year period should communicate with the nearest Army Recruiting Office, or the Commandant, Air Corps Technical School at Atlanta, Georgia.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority will train 45,000 pilots next year through its college sponsors. The maximum cost to the student will be $40 for the entire course. In addition to the college students a limited number unable to enroll in the regular college work will be permitted to participate. Applicants should be made direct to the college sponsor.

Many people are offering their services in connection with the National Defense Program and are making inquiries as to how they should proceed to make their applications. If one desires to enter the military service he should confer with a Recruiting Officer who can give him all the information relating thereto. If he desires to be connected with the non-military part of the National Defense Program he should confer with the Federal and State Employment Office as these offices will be called upon to submit the names of qualified applicants.

Camp Shelby.

For the past year or more we have been endeavoring to get established at Camp Shelby, just out of Hattiesburg, a permanent regular army post. This camp offers one of the best sites in our judgment for the training of soldiers in the whole country. It will be remembered that during the World War the 38th Division consisting of approximately 40,000 soldiers were trained at Camp Shelby and the 101st Division was in process of organization when the armistice was signed. From the standpoint of health, weather conditions, etc. Camp Shelby had an exceptional splendid record during the World War. Several weeks ago we succeeded in getting both Senators and the entire Mississippi delegation to confer with Secretary of War Woodring and General George Marshall, the Chief of Staff, with the DeSoto National Forest. Shortly thereafter the Secretary of War and the Chief of Staff promised me that they would fly down to Camp Shelby to look it over. The date was set for May 18th, but the German Blitzkrieg happened a few days prior to the 18th and it was necessary for the Secretary of War and the Chief of Staff to call off the trip. The demands in connection with the present program of preparation are so heavy upon the time of these gentlemen that it now appears that they can't go any time soon. However, looking to the establishment of such a post, or the utilization of the Camp in some other way, we have now succeeded in getting them to designate two generals, a colonel, and a major out of the office of the Chief of Staff to go to Camp Shelby for this purpose.

Camp Shelby is not a Hattiesburg matter. It is something that affects the entire state, and if this visit of these Army officials results as satisfactorily as we expect it to, at least three regiments of artillery, and possibly a division or two will be stationed at Camp Shelby. And Mississippi will no longer be without a permanent Army post. This will mean a great deal to South Mississippi.

Adjournment
It appears that Congress expects to remain close to Capitol Hill during this emergency. Therefore, it is doubtful if there will be an adjournment of Congress for some time but recesses will probably be arranged to extend over the Republican Convention, June 24th, and probably over the Democratic Convention, July 15.

Mistake"

"BECAUSE my boy was of college age, I had the mistaken idea that he no longer needed my personal guidance and encouragement. If I had only known how much it would mean to him to have frequent Long Distance chats with his dad, he'd not have become dissatisfied. He'd still be in school—happy.

"With my other two children, I won't have the same cause for self-reproach. I've arranged for them to call home 'collect' every week. The small cost of those calls will be returned to me many times over in the knowledge that all's well.

"If you have children away from home, I hope you won't make the mistake I made. Voice-visit with them regularly by telephone. It pays—I know."

SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE

INCORPORATEDGOODYEAR MARKS
PEAK QUARTER CEN-TURY TIRE MAKING

Has New Two and Four-
Unit Plan to Boost Summer Output to New High.

"Celebrating its twenty-fifth successive year during which, based on production and sales records, an accurate estimate is that more people have ridden on its tires than that of any other manufacturer. The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company is marking the occasion with a July 4th tire sale," said E. J. Arceneaux, local company dealer.

Featuring the Marathon, introduced more than two years ago and successfully proved by billions of service miles on the road, as well as the recently announced All-American tire, built to carry 70 per cent of the majority market of users, Mr. Arceneaux said that, currently he was able to offer the Marathon in sets of two or four tires to meet the peak market in which there should be more replacements, either in sets or units, of worn out casings now running on the highways.

"It is true, as everyone in the great middle class group of car owners realizes, that tires ought to be replaced oftener, especially in the heat of summer driving when there are more cars moving on the roads and tire failures endanger a greater number of persons, but the matter of cash outlay has prevented buying more than one tire at a time," explained Mr. Arceneaux. "That is, owners could not buy the tire of a recognized manufacturer at a price that would permit replacement of two or four tires, and the thrifty person wants to get as much in quality for his outlay as he can. So, when we offer the Marathon with its high-wide tread, new roll grip non-skid and dual cord construction, protection against bruises and punctures, and stand back of it with a lifetime guarantee, we believe we are doing our part to put good, lower-priced tires within the reach of the majority, thus furthering highway safety."

"The new All-American, Goodyear's contribution to the rock-bottom price range of tires is a great guaranteed value for this field," declared Mr. Arceneaux, who urged that car owners investigate their own tires' safety or drive in for a no-charge, no-obligation inspection—because he wants to continue his part in helping reduce motorist accidents due to tire failure.

Attorney D. M. Russell Moves Into Own New Office Building.

The building is modern two-story frame, the lower floor devoted exclusively for Mr. Russell's offices and the upper floors with complete living quarters.

Horace Farr, local contractor and builder, constructed this attractive building in a comparatively short while and it is quite a credit to the city.

"Send Thy light into our darkness, and guide the nations as one family into the ways of peace.

"Take away all prejudice and hatred and fear.

"Strengthen in us day by day the will to understand.

"And to those who by their countenances lead the peoples of the earth grant a right judgment, that so through them and us Thy will be done.

"Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."
